Testimonial – BNI Hanse Kings Lynn

Martin Langford

1-2 Call Worksafe

I have had personal experience of Martin's services recently in relation to 'asbestos awareness training'. After the training I believe I can now do my job with more confidence and safely. Indeed, very soon after the training, Martin helped me in a very practical way while I was carrying out a survey, thereby confirming he provides additional 'added value' after the event.

In my experience, Martin takes personal responsibility for the work he undertakes. He has a pride in his service and is friendly and approachable. He is available on his mobile telephone at any reasonable time and is always happy to discuss any issue relating to his work.

I would have no hesitation in recommending Martin and his firm's services to friends, family, clients or customers who are looking for an excellent and friendly health and safety advice service in the future. I believe they would not be disappointed.

I would be happy to speak to any potential clients or customers who are contemplating using Martin's services.
